GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

Success in both the world of business and sports is nothing new to George M. Steinbrenner, Principal Owner of the New York Yankees.

In 1973, Steinbrenner put together the group who purchased the New York Yankees from CBS. Under his direction, it took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees once again into World Champions. In the decade of the 1980's, the Yankees won more games than any other club in Major League Baseball. They are also the last team to win consecutive World Championships.

His success in the sports world is not limited to the Yankees. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

A holder of four honorary doctorate degrees, Steinbrenner is heavily involved in civic and community causes. He is the founder of the Silver Shield Foundation in New York City, which provides college educations for all children of policemen, housing and transit police, fire-fighters and state troopers who gave their lives in the line-of-duty.

He served as Chairman of the Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. In February 1989 he was elected to the position of Vice President, U.S. Olympic Committee—a position he still holds today. He probably devotes as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he does to his many other sporting endeavors and spent most of February 1992 in Albertville, France with the U.S. Olympic team.

Adding to his sports involvement, Steinbrenner is one of the owners of the Tampa Bay Lightning, a new franchise in the National Hockey League.

GENE MICHAEL

The 1992 season constitutes Gene Michael's 22nd year in the Yankee organization as a player, coach, manager, general manager or scout. On August 20, 1990, when he was transferred from his scouting position to Vice President and General Manager, Michael started his second stint in that capacity with the Yankees.

Michael scouted and coached from 1988-90, prior to his appointment. The only time he spent away from the Yankee organization was during the 1986-87 campaigns, when he managed the Chicago Cubs. From 1983-86, Michael was an on-field coach with the Yankees.

In 1981 he managed the Yankees to a first-half championship in a split-season and remained until September before being replaced by Bob Lemon. He took over again as manager, replacing Lemon in 1982, 14 games into the season. He, in turn, was replaced by Clyde King after 86 games.

His other stint as General Manager came in 1980, with the Yankees posting a 103-59 record, good for first place in the American League East.

He was a coach in 1976 & 1978, and worked in the front office in 1977. In 1979, Michael had his first taste of managing, leading the Columbus Clippers to an International League Championship.

Michael played in the major leagues from 1966-76 with five different clubs: Pittsburgh, Los Angeles, Detroit, Boston and the Yankees (1968-74). Overall, the steady fielding shortstop hit .229 and had a .963 career average with the glove.

Gene makes his home in Upper Saddle River, New Jersey. He has three grown children: Sandra, Mark and Matthew. Michael is the founder of the "Gene Michael Fund", a chapter of the "Tomorrow's Children Fund". The fund raises money for research, care and assistance for children's cancer at the Hackensack Medical Center.

Yankee Stadium's playing field covers approximately 3.5 acres . . . the entire stadium area is on 11.6 acres. A combination of some 800 multi-vapor and incandescent lamps illuminate the field, with powers of up to 1500 watts.

DID YOU KNOW . . . that Yankee Stadium is built almost in the spot where baseball originated in the Bronx? The Unions of Morrisania, who called themselves the champions of the world around 1866, played near the spot where the old Melrose station of the Harlem Railroad was located.

Since 1932 the New York Yankees have honored their greatest greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932 the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, the diminutive manager who guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships, who had suddenly died the year before.

The first plaque was placed on the centerfield wall in April, 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who had built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for the "Captain" Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth.

Later plaques were placed in centerfield for General Manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees two great centerfielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle.

Originally the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straight-away centerfield on the warning track about ten feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves, was the tradition of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the centerfield gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men.

When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovation in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to the new Monument Park between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976 two more plaques were added memorializing managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel.

In the '80's plaques have been dedicated to the following Yankee greats: Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989).

Two other plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope Paul II in 1979 have been placed by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985 the Yankees were again able to open up the Monument Park area for fan viewing with the moving in of the left-centerfield fence. Long lines and increased fan interest has caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the Monument Park area. In addition, the Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

YANKEES ON THE AIR

Yankee baseball will be broadcast for the 54th consecutive season in 1992. WPIX-TV (Channel 11) will be the New York City television outlet for the 42nd straight season, while WABC Radio (770 AM) is leading the Yankee radio network as the flagship station for the twelfth straight year. A network covering 12 states also participates in the Yankees' TV and radio coverage. The Madison Square Garden Network is beginning its fourth season as the Yankees' cable television outlet in the tri-state area, and Yankee games also will be broadcast in Spanish to Latin America for the 23rd straight season. These comprehensive broadcast outlets insure that Yankee baseball will be one of the most widely available sports events in the country.

JOHN STERLING and MICHAEL KAY begin their first season paired as Yankee broadcasters on WABC radio. Sterling, in his 4th season as a Yankee broadcaster, has broadcast Atlanta Braves and Hawks games on Superstation WTBS. He has also broadcast New Jersey Nets and New York Islanders games locally. He is the host of the winter edition of Yankee's Magazine, seen weekly on MSG. Michael Kay will begin his rookie season behind the mike. Kay, 31, was a Yankee beat writer for 5 years, from 1987-88 with the NY Post and the last three with the Daily News. Last year he joined MSG Network on the postgame show and has been hosting a sports talk show on WABC. The Bronx native is a graduate of Fordham University. Engineer/Producer Brian Fergenson begins his 12th season in the booth.

On MSG, DEWAYNE STAATS and TONY KUBEK return for their third season to handle play by play and color analysis in the broadcast booth. Staats and Kubek are joined again by AL TRAUTWIG, who will handle the pre-game show ("Yankee Scorecard"), post game show, and broadcast from the booth. Staats served as the play by play announcer for the Chicago Cubs on WGN-TV and radio from 1985-89. He also handled play by play duties for the Houston Astros for eight seasons prior to joining the Cubs. Kubek, the longtime analyst for NBC Sports, "Baseball Game of the Week," and one of the most respected voices in baseball, also returns for his second campaign with the Yankees. Kubek spent 24 years in the NBC booth, working with Jim Simpson, Curt Gowdy, Joe Garagiola and Bob Costas. He also spent 13 seasons as a television broadcaster for Toronto Blue Jays baseball. Kubek was a popular Yankee shortstop for the duration of his career (1957-65), going to six World Series along the way.

On WPIX, the trio of PHIL RIZZUTO, BOBBY MURCER and TOM SEAVER begin their second season together in the television booth. Rizzuto, the greatest shortstop in Yankee history, begins his 52nd season of affiliation with the New York Yankees, and 36th as a broadcaster. The 1950 American League MVP moved into the broadcast booth immediately following his playing career (1941-56) in 1957. Murcer, a former star outfielder for the Yankees, returns for his fourth season, and second consecutive, as a Yankee broadcaster. Seaver's broadcast career started in 1975, when he did work for Channel 2 in New York. He also worked post-season for ABC and NBC from 1976-82 and for CBS Radio as well. The 311 game winner is a three time Cy Young award winner and a 1992 inductee into the Baseball Hall of Fame. He returns for his 4th season in the Yankee booth. Director/Producer John Moore begins his 13th season with WPIX.

Yankee players have hit for the cycle (single, double, triple and homer in the same game) 13 times, tops in the American League. The last one to do it was Bobby Murcer on August 29, 1972. Other Yankees were Bert Daniels, Bob Meusel (3 times), Tony Lazzeri, Lou Gehrig (twice), Joe DiMaggio (twice), Buddy Rosar, Joe Gordon, and Mickey Mantle.

DID YOU KNOW ... The Yankees have won doubleheaders via shutouts in both games 14 times, most recently on April 19, 1987 when Charles Hudson and a combined Tommy John, Pat Clements and Dave Righetti shutout stopped the Royals at Yankee Stadium. It's happened to the Yankees only four times, most recently on July 27, 1975 when Bill Lee and Roger Moret of Boston shut down the Yankees at Shea Stadium.

YANKEE GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit one grand slam in 1991 (Matt Nokes, 9/23 @ Mil off Mark Lee) after not hitting one in 1990... prior to Nokes the last grand slam came from Mel Hall on 6/24/89 at Royal Stadium, a span of 13,601 at-bats between slams... the Yankees hit two in 1989 and four in 1988 after hitting a major league season-tying best 10 grand slams in 1987... overall the franchise has hit 251 grand slams in 249 games and posted a 222-26-1 record in such games, which translates into an .895 winning percentage... they are 119-11 in home games; 103-15-1 in road games... Yankee pitching allowed five grand slams in 1991, most recently to Danny Tartabull (8/14 vs K.C.) who connected in the 11th inning off Steve Farr... four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees: Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)... there have been 13 pinch-hit grand slams, with the last coming from Jose Cruz (7/16/88)... the Yankees have had two multi-slam games; on 6/29/87 (Winfield and Mattingly) and 5/24/36 (Lazzeri, two)... in ML history, there have been only 19 last inning grand slams that have taken the team to sudden victory when trailing by three runs in the last of the inning... there has been only one in Yankee history: Babe Ruth on 9/24/25 off Chicago's Sarge Connally with one out giving the Yankees a 6-5 victory... Ruth twice hit grand slams on consecutive days.

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 50 one-hitters over the years, the most recent coming last season on July 7 at California when Scott Sanderson tossed his 2nd career one-hitter, allowing only a leadoff double to Luis Polonia in the 4th inning. Sanderson struck out one and did not walk anyone in the 2-0 victory. It was the Yankees first one-hitter since Joe Niekro and Al Holland combined June 4, 1986 at California. It was also the first complete game one-hitter since Luis Tiant one-hit the Athletics, July 8, 1979 at Oakland, with Rickey Henderson spoiling the bid. It was one of three one-hitters, Tiant pitched for the Yanks. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled three one-hitters for New York, and both men participated in a fourth. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw two, with one of Bevens coming in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series. Bevens had a no-hitter for 8.2 innings, when the Dodgers Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs giving Brooklyn a 3-2 victory. It was the last game Bevens would ever pitch.

The Yankees have been one-hit 46 times, with the last one occurring on June 7, 1990 at Boston by the Red Sox Greg Harris and Jeff Reardon. Jesse Barfield's two-out 5th inning single spoiled the bid and was the only Yankee baserunner. Reardon pitched a 1-2-3 9th to finish the game. The last complete game one-hitter was on August 3, 1987 when Cleveland's Tom Candiotti accomplished the feat in Cleveland ... Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton, and Nolan Ryan are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm also one-hit the Yankees in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as spoilers. Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970 Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which wound up being more than one-hitters. On May 2, 1984 Mattingly ruined a perfect game at Chicago for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the 7th inning and three years ago broke up Moose Haas' no-hit bid.

Of recent vintage, Bob Ojeda of Boston took a no-hit into the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium 9/12/81 only to have Rick Cerone leadoff with a double followed by a Dave Winfield double.

James P. Dawson Award

The James P. Dawson Award was established in honor of the late sportswriter of the New York Times who died while covering the Yankees during spring training. It is presented annually to the outstanding rookie in spring training. Two former winners of the award, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win American League Rookie of the Year honors. The award was first presented to rookie Norm Siebern by manager Casey Stengel in St. Petersburg at the conclusion of spring training in 1956. Media personnel who regularly cover the Yankees vote to decide the winner.

The Yankees were the first team to wear uniform numbers regularly (1929), and their numbers have always been a source of fascination. More numbers are retired than on any other team . . . Did you know that Joe DiMaggio was #9 as a rookie? Yogi Berra was #35? Mickey Mantle #6? Whitey Ford #19? Thurman Munson #28? Billy Martin #12? Current Yankee Don Mattingly once wore #46.

1981: Started the season at Portland (1-2, 4.94 ERA in five starts) yet spent a majority of the season with the Pirates...appeared in 17 games (13 starts) for Pittsburgh, compiling a 2-7 record with a 3.98 ERA over 86.0 innings...notched first ML win 5/22 pitching a complete game vs. Phil.

1980: Was 12-10, 4.05 while making two starts at Portland...made major league debut with a start against the Dodgers on 5/7... overall was 0-1 with a 3.75 ERA in two starts for the Pirates.

DID YOU KNOW . . . that the Yankees have won four games by forfeit . . . July 2, 1906, the Yankees were awarded the second game of a doubleheader at Philadelphia when they were leading 5-1 in the ninth and the crowd moved out onto the field . . . later that same year at New York vs Philadelphia, the Yankees again won by forfeit when the A's, protesting a play on which the Yankees tied the score 3-3 in ninth, refused to take the field after a lengthy argument with the umpire . . . on June 13, 1924 at Detroit, the Yankees won by forfeit after leading 10-6 going into the ninth inning when a beanball incident resulted in a bench and stand clearing fight . . . finally on September 30, 1971 at Washington the Yankees were losing 7-5 in the ninth when the fans, knowing it was the last game of the season and that the team would move to Texas for the next season, poured onto the field and began tearing it up for souvenirs.
